

THE OXFORD COUNTY CITIZEN

VOLUME XL—NUMBER 26

BETHEL, MAINE, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1934.

Four Cents A Copy—$2.00 A Year

BETHEL AND VICINITY

P. J. Clifford attended the conference at Portland. H. Brown, Jack Gill, and Curvickson are working for Les-ayls at Portland.

Fred Chapman entered the General Hospital, Portland, Tuesday for surgery. Mrs. Garard Eames and Mrs. True Eames were in Bethel, N. H., Sunday.

Estella Goodridge of West spent the week end with her Mrs. F. O. Robertson. Mrs. G. N. Sanborn were guests of their daughter, Grant Maxson, in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. French of Bethel, N. H., visited his brother, Irving French, and wife last week.

Betty Edwards and Mary born spent the week end in Bethel, guests of Mrs. Arthur.

Adney Gurney and little daughter were in Norway Tuesday, guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Pulsifer.

Mrs. E. E. Bennett and Mrs. E. E. Bennett spent the week end in Lebanon, N. H., guests of their daughter, Mrs. Knight.

"The World's All" is to be presented here Nov. 3, sponsored by the Bethel Association.

Ethel Bisbee has infection in hand and is unable to teach. Blanche Howe is taking her for a few days.

Mrs. Joseph Maddocks spending a few days in Portland before leaving for their home in Haven, Conn.

J. B. Chapman has a geranium which has had from 12 buds and blossoms at all since last spring.

There will be a group meeting of Methodist ministers at the Bethel church next Tuesday, also a quarterly conference in the evening.

Frieda K. Merrill, field secretary of Opportunity Farm, was speaker at the meeting of the Club at Maple Inn Tuesday.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. B. Chapman and Mrs. Harold Lurvey went to Boston Saturday and attended Philadelphia-Boston baseball Sunday.

shall be at my home on Mason street Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and shall sell my household furniture at private sale at this time.

Mrs. C. K. Fox, adv. the meeting of the Parent Teachers Association will be held at the grammar school building Monday evening, Oct. 8. The program committee is as follows: Miss Leeman, Edith Bailey and Mrs. Cassie.

Progress has been made on the construction of a garage at the rear of Irving Carver's. The addition, which opens on Hill, gives a floor space of 100 feet, and is planned to afford room for five large trucks and two passenger cars. The new garage adjoins and includes part of space used as basement of the building, and will be heated by steam. The work is in charge of Fortier.

REBEKAH INSTALLATION The regular meeting of Sunset Lodge Monday evening, 1, the following officers were elected:

G. Mrs. Jennie Mitchell
S. N. G.—Miss Julia Brown
S. N. G.—Miss Louise Demeritt
G. Mrs. Ruth Brown
S. V. G.—Miss Beatrice Brown
S. V. G.—Miss Eleanor Lyon

Warden—Mrs. Maud Hunt End.—Miss Faye Mitchell
Chaplain—Miss Electa Chapin
G. Mrs. Bertha Mundt
G. Mrs. Lucy Demeritt
Sec.—Mrs. Gertrude Boyker
Sec.—Miss Ida Packard

Sec.—Mrs. Maude Bean
N. G.—Miss Eugenia Haselton
short program was enjoyed at the meeting and refreshments served.

U. OF M. PRESIDENT TO BROADCAST OCT. 11

On Thursday, Oct. 11, Dr. Arthur A. Hauck, President of the University of Maine, will speak at 12:00 noon. The title of his talk will be "Service from the Extension Service." Dr. Hauck came to Maine this summer and has become much interested in Extension work. His talk will be of interest to everyone.

APPRECIATION CONCERT

The members of George A. Munt Post, American Legion, are planning to sponsor a concert and drama for the benefit of the Bethel Blue Birds. A comedy farce will be presented by local talent and a program of excellent music will be given.

The Blue Birds have been obliging, faithful and efficient for years and here is an opportunity for townspeople to show their gratitude.

More details as to time and place will appear next week.

LOYALTY SUNDAY

The effort being made throughout the United States to bring about a readjustment in thinking is as necessary as a readjustment in material lives.

With the approval of the president, the religious leaders of Protestant, Catholic and Jewish peoples are setting aside Sunday, Oct. 7, or Saturday, Oct. 6, as Loyalty Day. All members are expected to attend. All friends are expected to attend. Every loyal American is expected to attend divine worship on that day and institute a new habit of loyalty—to God and Home and Native Land. For—our troubles are not mainly material, they are mental and spiritual.

The dangers of today are three fold: Nationalism, Materialism, and Selfishness.

There is no excuse for America to try to think in terms of narrow sectionalism or even nationalism. The world is a neighborhood—and all nations are inter-dependent.

War is not only murder but suicide. Hatred and greed are poison to the one who indulges and injurious to all others.

Back to God. Try Brotherhood and Helpfulness.

There is a consensus of opinion that the only salvation for America and the world comes in the application of the teachings of Jesus Christ.

If you are trying to be loyal to God, to your family, to your native land, observe Loyalty Day Oct. 7th.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Friday, Sept. 28, 1934, will long be remembered by Elsie (Conner) Douglass, for on that date a large group of her friends gathered at the home of Patrick O'Brien and tendered her a Bridal Shower.

The dining room was tastefully decorated in streamers of pink, blue, and white that were caught up in pretty designs all around the table. A large basket filled to overflowing occupied the center of the table and suspended from the light were a miniature bride and groom. All lights were put out while Mrs. O'Brien went over to the inn to get Elsie. On the pretense of having a present for her she was persuaded to accompany her back. The lights were turned on and Elsie stood there—speechless. To lessen her embarrassment a mock marriage took place. After the fun was over, the "bride" had thrown her bouquet away, and the wedding party mingled with the rest of the guests. Elsie thanked everyone and began opening her packages. She received many lovely gifts. A party of "colored" folk caused unusual merriment and with their little plectanun were the life of the party.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and the guests departed at a late hour. The guest book in charge of Doris Sullivan was signed by forty-eight.

THE RED CROSS

As the winter approaches and all wise and prudent people are making preparations, we come to the annual Red Cross Roll Call.

This year there will be many needs. The meat, flour and cloth from the Government will not be so easily available and perhaps entirely lacking. But the Red Cross, conceived for emergencies and with a record of meeting them, is about to have its annual drive. World wide, nation wide, in its ministry, the local Chapter is also the effective minister to real needs in our community.

Efforts will be made to secure clothing and other needed articles as well as the money which must be used for such purposes. When you are approached for support have your dollar ready and plan to give, even if it hurts, of material or clothing for the less fortunate. The Red Cross represents the finest type of service.

Give.

FOOTBALL GAME CANCELLED

The football game which was scheduled for this coming Saturday with Monmouth Academy at the Gould Athletic Field has been cancelled because of a misunderstanding in dates. There will be no game here Saturday.

Hilltops Clear

By EMILIE LORING

A Romance as Refreshing as the Maine Pines which Play Their Own Important Part in the Story

Prudence Schuyler came to Prosperity Farm to make a new life for herself and her brother, whose health had been broken by tragedy. The world from which she was running away had taught her to distrust wealthy and presentable young idlers and when Rodney Gerard, their nearest neighbor, proved to be one of the despised clan, she closed her heart against him. But for Rodney she was the only woman in the world, so he set himself to prove to her that even for rich young men marriage can be "forever and forever." How well he succeeded is told in the closing chapters of Mrs. Loring's delightful tale.

Do not fail to read "HILLTOPS CLEAR," which will be published serially in this paper

Start it on Page 7

SIX BOY SCOUTS AT COURT OF HONOR

Six Boy Scouts appeared before the local Court of Honor on Monday evening for examinations in second and first class tests and merit badge work. The court approved three second class tests, four first class tests, five merit badge wards, and the advancement of Irving Brown to the rank of second class Scout and O'Neil Robertson to life Scout. The following is a summary of tests approved: second class tests, Irving Brown, signalling, safety, oath and law; first class tests, Dale Thurston, oath and law; Dana Brooks, thrift; Charles Anderson, thrift and first aid; Howard Thurston, merit badge in chemistry; O'Neil Robertson, merit badges in public health, athletics, personal health and pioneering. The members of the Court of Honor are P. F. Crane, L. E. Davis and E. A. Van Den Kerkhoven.

WEST PARIS BOY INJURED

While driving a 1929 Dodge sedan on the farm of his father, Eben Pike, of West Paris, Friday noon, Donald Pike, aged 12, sustained a fractured skull and a deep cut on the side of his head when the car overturned on a rocky embankment. The car rolled over several times and landed right side up. The boy was able to walk about 300 yards to the house where he is said to be resting comfortably.

ELIPHALET A. BLAKE

Eliphalet A. Blake passed away at his home in Island Pond, Vt., Sunday, Sept. 23. He was born in Gilead 82 years ago, the son of David and Olive Adams Blake. At the age of 16 he began work with the Grand Trunk railroad at the Gorham yards. Two years later he became a fireman, and for 47 years was a fireman and engineer on this division, retiring 17 years ago. Mr. Blake married Miss Nellie Pheeny of Island Pond, who passed away in August of last year. He is survived by one brother, A. J. Blake of Gilead. Burial was at Island Pond.

BETHEL DEFEATS RUMFORD AT ANDOVER FAIR

Bethel journeyed to Andover last Thursday and took over Rumford Institute to the tune of 8-2 at the Andover Fair.

Charles Harlow was by far the shining light of the game, allowing the heavy hitting Institute team only four scattered hits and striking out 10 men. Harlow also hit well, as did Scribner and Stanley. "Gus" Helms was the star on the defense along with Whitman, who played a great game on first base.

BETHEL	ab	r	h	po	a	e
Helms, ss	6	0	0	2	3	1
Stanley, rf	6	0	2	2	0	0
D. Daniels, 2b	4	1	1	0	1	1
Hood, lf	2	2	1	0	0	0
Robertson, c	4	1	1	10	0	1
Harlow, p	5	2	2	0	2	0
Scribner, cf	4	1	2	3	0	0
P. Browne, 3b	3	1	1	0	2	1
Whitman, lb	4	0	1	10	1	0

RUMF'D INST.	ab	r	h	po	a	e
Scharffa, lb	5	1	2	10	1	2
Saunders, ss	5	0	1	1	2	1
Garett, p	4	0	0	6	4	0
E. Small, 3b	3	0	0	2	3	0
Gilmes, c	4	0	0	6	1	0
Gerrier, 2b	3	1	1	3	2	0
Martin, cf	4	0	0	2	0	0
R. Knight, lf	4	0	0	1	0	0
E. Knight, rf	4	0	0	2	0	0

Scores by innings:

Score by Innings:	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Bethel	0	0	0	0	4	0	0	4	8
Rumford Inst.	0	0	0	1	0	1	0	1	0

Two base hits—Daniels, Whitman, Scharffa, Saunders, Sacrifice hits—Daniels, Robertson, Stolen bases—Garett, Small, Helms 2, Browne 2, Double plays—Garett, Saunders, Scharffa; Whitman (unassisted). Left on bases—Bethel 13, Rumford 10. Base on balls—Harlow 3; Garett 7. Strike outs—Harlow 10; Garett 5. Passed balls—Robertson 2. Hit by pitcher by Garett (Scribner); by Harlow (Garett, Small). Empire—Todd. Time of game—2 hours.

EDWARD LITTLE 22, GOULD 0

Gould Holds Winners To One Touchdown In Last Half Of Fighting Game

The Gould Academy football eleven fell before the bigger Edward Little team only after a great and determined fight. Every man on the local team deserves praise for the fine spirit and fight shown in holding the Red Ghosts to a 22-0 score. The Auburn outfit has 100 men out for football and out of that group have picked a team that is big and fast. The much lighter Gould eleven deserves nothing but praise for the fine game played. The first half ended with a 16-0 score but during the last half the winners could cross the Blue and Gold goal line once. The last period with the Edward Little regulars fighting to keep their goal line uncrossed, the Academy team put up its greatest fight.

The winners had a well balanced team and many substitutes of practically equal value. For Gould Willard Wright, Mundt and Wally Morgan were outstanding on the defense. Martinson made a number of fine gains through the line while Browne's punting pulled the losers out of a number of bad holes. The work of Onofrio and Robert Chapman, both inexperienced men was most commendable. The service of the veteran linemen, Walter Grover, were greatly missed. He was unable to play because of a knee injury sustained in an earlier practice session.

The teams lined up as follows:

Line, re	re, R. Chapman
Veizina, rt	rt, Wright
Young, rg	rg, D. Thurston
Clough, c	c, Morgan
Ryan, lg	lg, Losler
Cowles, lb	lb, Coolidge
LePage, lb	lb, Mundt
Kidder, q	q, Martinson
Christman, rh	rh, Onofrio
Kilbourne, lh	lh, R. Browne
Whitmore, t	t, Daniels

NEW ROAD STARTED

Work started Tuesday morning on the new road across W. H. Thurston's field east of Alder River bridge. Four trucks and 21 men are at work on the construction of a stone fill 900 feet long and two feet in thickness. The equipment of the contractor, Ralph Bull of Fitchburg, Mass., which has already arrived includes a gas shovel and "bulldozer." The last named machine is a scraper powered by a tractor. A steam roller will be here in a few days. The gas shovel did some excavating on the west side of Thurston's field Wednesday afternoon.

The men work in two five hour shifts each day, the trucks operating 10 hours continuously. The foreman in charge is Natti Wilnikka of Fitchburg.

Keep Watch for the "Feverish Cold"

If you are "run down" or out of condition, if sluggish bowels have allowed poisonous impurities to accumulate in your system, you are very liable to suffer from "feverish" colds.

Dr. True's Elixir

Laxative Worm Expeller

will ward off or lessen these attacks by getting relief from constipation.

Mrs. E. W. Stephan of 31 Kennerma Road, Dorchester, Mass., writes:—"It was recommended to me by a relative who had used it for years, and I in turn most sincerely recommend it, most of all for children, but also as a laxative for adults."

Successfully used for 87 years.

Habits of the Cuckoo
ter she has laid her eggs le cuckoo watches care if they are destroyed she r nests and lays a s
h. She is not entirely about the youngsters.
arrive in the various nest thing they do is to e other occupants. It is a l struggle to see, with g cuckoo always the when each nest contain hes over them, although r attempts to give them ation of the eggs, and ng of the young, is left r parents. Soon after g appear, the cuckoo an fly south to their A

DO I HAVE A SAVINGS ACCOUNT IN A MUTUAL SAVINGS BANK?

You see, part of what I do every week I turn over to help run the other part is free and I depend or save as I choose you may be sure I have some of it.

This month my savings book shows $362

Bethel Savings Bank

BETHEL, MAINE

PYROX

SIMPLY GAS AND

GIVES NEW LIFE

The greatest of authorities
ver and endorse the use PYROX for better motor performance. Ask for the Pyrox is a liquid which is added to the gasoline. It cleans the valves, atomizes the fuel, and makes the engine run smoother.

It also makes the engine run cooler and longer lasting.

Drive into your gas station and ask for the amazing "Pyrox".
Manufactured by PYROX
LA CROSSE, WIS.

HOLT & THOMAS
Distributors
HANOVER, MAINE

Send Invitations or Printed at the Citizen

Sept. 28-29

ULLAVAN

What Now?

WOODSTOCK HIGH SCHOOL

Friday, September 28, the annual Freshman Reception was held at Woodstock High, the senior class as usual had charge of the program, overseeing the initiation and entertainment of the new recruits. They performed their duties well and entertained the Freshmen most royally. The ceremony was unique in that the class organized the program in the form of a royal palace with all of the officers and attendants that go with such an institution. The freshmen were duly initiated into the notable organization and are now full fledged members of the royal family of Woodstock High School. The Rev. J. McKillop helped the senior class organize the program. Following the initiation refreshments were served and games were played.

The class baseball games were played Tuesday night, Oct. 2, at the baseball field. The senior and freshman classes combined to play the junior and sophomore classes.

Rehearsals have begun for the three act play, "Aunt Emma Sees It Through," by Robert E. Farndon. Miss Stevens of the High School faculty is directing the drama, which will be presented the latter part of the first quarter of the school year.

Woodstock High School will be closed Thursday, Oct. 4, for the purpose of allowing the faculty to attend the County Teachers' Convention at Bethel.

Bernard Cushman, a member of the senior class at Woodstock High School, is ill at the C. M. G. Hospital in Lewiston recovering from an appendicitis operation.

This year, as has been the custom during the past years, the High School has adopted the plan presented by the Crowell Publishing Company, to earn money for athletics and other school activities. For every magazine sold the school gets a liberal portion of the subscription fund. There are also prizes awarded the students selling the most magazines.

EAST BETHEL

Mrs. William G. Holt has gone to Boston to be under the treatment of a specialist there.

Miss Jennie Rich is staying with Mrs. A. M. Bean during Mrs. Clara Rayford's vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hanson and son Richard, Miss Charlotte Hammond of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Eates and family of Locke Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Curtis of West Sumner, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Swift of West Paris, were callers at Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Curtis' on Sunday.

Leonard Tyler is in Aroostook working during the potato harvesting time.

Mrs. Percy Cleveland is gaining at the Rumford Community Hospital where she has been for the last two weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith have been keeping house for Mr. Cleveland but have returned to their own home now. Clayton Cleveland is at present staying with his father.

Miss Esther Holt of Boston, Mass., spent the week end at her home here.

NORTH WOODSTOCK

Mrs. John Hemingway has been sick with the gripe.

Divine Marble has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Eva Fuller.

Mr. and Mrs. James Knights were at Norway last Saturday.

Mrs. Alpheous Coffin and family are moving to Milton with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Millett and family.

Herbert Noyes and family will have the rent which the Coffins occupied.

Evelyn Knights was home with her parents over the week end.

Bernard Cushman is comfortable. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Noyes and family were at Weld and Dixfield on Sunday.

Mrs. Ada Abbott and daughter, Hazel, of Casco recently called at Cullen Abbott's.

TO THE CITIZENS OF THE TOWN OF WOODSTOCK

Monday, October 8, at 8 P. M. there will be a special town meeting called to take up three pieces of business. The article indicated as Article 3 is of great importance to the entire town for we will all admit that the need is very great for recreational and social facilities, especially the large amount of leisure time that both the young people and older people are having today makes the need even greater than in days past. This article is to see if the town will permit the construction of a building on the school grounds. The entire financing is to be cared for by the P. T. A. and the F. E. R. A., thereby not costing the town a cent. All the P. T. A. is asking is the right to put up a building.

It seems that now is the opportunity to get what we need, while we can get it as a gift. This is an opportunity we cannot afford to reject and stands on its own merits as the best plan yet put before the town for consideration.

An Interested Citizen.

MILTON

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bowker attended the fair at Waterford Saturday.

Mrs. Ada Billings visited her son, Harry Billings, over the week end. Mrs. J. H. Ackley visited her son, Ernest Sessions, a few days last week.

Work has begun again on the East Milton school house on the FERA project.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Dyer and Mrs. Cora Millett attended the Grange meeting last Saturday night.

Rowe Hill, Greenwood

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lary and daughter, Madlyn, of Gorham, N. H., and Leslie McAllister of Bryant Pond were callers at Colby Ring's recently.

Those who attended the World's Fair at Waterford last Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Ring, Mr. and Mrs. Durward Lang and son, Merle, Norma Ring, Vera Dunham, Winifred Bryant, Albert Ring and Ray Hanson.

John Bisbee of Bryant Pond called at Colby Ring's Sunday.

Miss Evelyn Seames spent Friday night with Norma Ring and they attended the Freshman reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Durward Lang called on Ernest Brooks Sunday afternoon.

Jack Frost called on us Monday night and killed all the pretty flowers in the neighborhood.

H. O. Woods called at Newton Bryant's Monday.

Mrs. Newton Bryant, Mrs. Wesley Ring and Mrs. Mabel Dunham called on Mrs. Colby Ring one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Dunham called on their son, Theodore, at Bryant Pond Sunday and found him greatly improved.

Glenn Martin called on Mrs. Ethel Martin last Saturday afternoon.

BRYANT POND

Miss Myrtle Bacon and Ralph of Boston and Walter Bacon of Norway were at the Little Jap over the week end. Lena Felt of Auburn was their guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Willard of Upton were the guests of his parents, Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Willard, Tuesday.

Mrs. Villa West has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Florence Cushman for a few days.

WEST PARIS

Rev. Eleanor B. Forbes is at the C. M. G. Hospital, recovering from an accident which she received on Monday night, Sept. 24, when the sedan in which she was riding with Mrs. D. R. Morrell of Auburn left the road and overturned on Goff Hill. The other occupants of the car were Mrs. Frank Kember of Auburn and Mrs. H. H. Tuell of West Paris. Miss Forbes injured were largely of her neck from which she has suffered much. Mrs. Kember received a cut on the head and injury to her leg, Mrs. D. R. Morrell an injured shoulder and nervous shock and Mrs. Tuell a cut on head and bruises on head, neck and shoulder. She was released from the Hospital Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Orland Field and little daughter, Betty Jane of Greene were guests the past week of Mrs. Fields' mother, Mrs. Minnie Ford.

Harold Ford returned to Greene Sunday after spending a few days with his mother, Mrs. Minnie Ford. S. T. White, druggist, who has been at the Maine General Hospital, Portland for treatment and observation underwent surgery Tuesday.

Rev. H. A. Markley of Auburn gave a very able sermon at the Universalist church Sunday morning and in the evening spoke again for the W. C. T. U. Both services were largely attended.

Rev. W. H. Gould of Turner will preach at the Universalist church next Sunday morning.

BOOSTER NIGHT AT BRYANT POND GRANGE

Booster Night was observed by Franklin Grange, Saturday night with a large attendance. A ten cent supper was served at seven o'clock. The following program was put on:

THE BRIGHTVILLE INDOOR CHAUTAUQUA

Part I—Monday
Platform Manager, Linwood Felt
Manager Concert Company,
Edith Abbott
Annie Bryant
Reading, "I Can't Do a Thing With My Hair Since It is Washed," Song, with encore, Roland Lord
Part II—Tuesday
Platform Manager, Linwood Felt
Pictures: Innocence, Joyce Cole
Mother, Annah Perham Portrait of a Lady, Barbara Bennett
A Comic Valentine, Mabel Dunham
Colonial Lady, Evelyn Knight
Summer Girl, Cleo Twitchell
Veterans of Two Wars, Walter Gordon, Roland Lord
Part III—Wednesday
Platform Manager, Linwood Felt
Manager Musical Entertainers,
Edwin Perham
Music on Accordion with encore,
Annie Curtis
Selection, Harmonica Band
Dance, encore, Iva Ring, Evelyn Lowe, Clara Whitman
Violin Solo, Ronello Davis
Part IV—Thursday
Platform Manager, Linwood Felt
Speech on Booster Day and the Grange in general,
G. W. Q. Perham
Part V—Friday
Platform Manager, Linwood Felt
Manager Coonville Jubilee Singers, Manning Arata
Duet, Kinky Haired Rastus and His Gal Sal, Annie Curtis, Lettie Day Song, Manning Arata
Music on combs
A letter from the W. N. Master was read by Ellis Davis. A social was enjoyed by all after the entertainment. There will be a Grange meeting next Saturday evening.

GREENWOOD CENT

Misses Sylvia Morgan of Paris and Flora Swan of Norway visited with Mrs. Laura Seames Saturday night and Sunday.

Reginald Roberts, who is in U. S. Navy, visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ma recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Jacobs Berlin were at Camp Wagner over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Abbott family of Mechanic Falls were the cottage Sunday.

Vernon Whitman of Norway the guest of his cousin, Mrs. La Seames, recently.

Beryl Martin and Stanley Seames attended Waterford fair Saturday.

David and Gordon Roberts and John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

BUSINESS CARDS

Watch This Space for Dr.

Eyes Examined, Glasses Fitted

by

E. L. GREENLEAF

OPTOMETRIST

over Rowe's Store

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6

DR. HOWARD E. TYLER

CHIROPRACTOR

Bethel, Maine

Mon. Afternoon

Thurs. Evening

S. S. Greenleaf

Funeral Home

Modern Ambulance Equipment

TELEPHONE 112 BETHEL, MAINE

DAY AND NIGHT SERVICE

E. E. WHITNEY & CO.

BETHEL, MAINE

MARBLE & GRANITE WORK

Chaste Designs

FIRST CLASS WORKMANSHIP

Letters of inquiry promptly answered

See Our Work—Get Our Price

E. E. WHITNEY & CO.

Satisfaction Guaranteed

DR. RALPH OTIS HO

OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN

office at the Residence of Mrs. Wallace Clark

Daily 9 a. m. to 12 m.

2:30 to 5 p. m. except Wednesdays

Evenings by appointment

KNOW WHAT YOU BUY

Nationally Advertised Goods

Sold by Bethel Merchants

The purchaser of standard

products takes no chance

The quality and price are

The manufacturer cannot afford have it otherwise.

BUY NATIONALLY ADVERTISED

GOODS IN BETHEL

APOLLO Chocolates,

W. E. BOSSE

CHILTON Pens,

E. P. L

Community, Rogers Bros., and

Holmes & Edwards Silver,

E. P. L

EASTMAN Kodaks,

W. E. BOSSE

GOODRICH Rubbers,

W. E. BOSSE

McKESSON Health Products,

W. E. BOSSE

MICHAELS-STERN Clothes,

W. E. BOSSE

MUNSON WEAR,

MURRAY Tires, LORD'S GAR

PHILCO Radios, E. P. L

WALK OVER Shoes, W. E. BOSSE

WATERMAN Fountain Pens,

W. E. BOSSE

REMINGTON

TYPEWRITERS

SOUTH WOOD

September 20—The month. Rain fell during and continuing when the rain was the welcome.

heavy frost as yet harvesting their favorable condition. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Davis recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Abbott family of Mechanic Falls were the cottage Sunday.

Vernon Whitman of Norway the guest of his cousin, Mrs. La Seames, recently.

Beryl Martin and Stanley Seames attended Waterford fair Saturday.

David and Gordon Roberts and John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

John Tebbets of Locke Mills visited at Ross Martin's Sunday.

WOOD CENT

Flora Morgan of Mrs. Laura Seamer
light and Sunday.
Roberts, who is in visited his grand and Mrs. R. L. Ma

Mrs. Milton Jacob
at Camp Wagner
Mrs. Ralph Abbott Mechanic Falls we Sunday.
Whitman of Norway
his cousin, Mrs. La
ently.
tin and Stanley Se waterford fair Satu
d Gordon Roberts
s of Locke Mills vi
tin's Sunday.

NESS CARDS
Space for D ned, Glasses Furn
by
GREENLEAF
TOMETRIST
Rowe's Store
DAY, OCTOBER 6

WARD E. TYL
ROPRACOR
NOIR
Tel.
ing

Greenleaf
Ambulance Equipm
112 BETHEL, M
NIGHT SERVICE

WHITNEY & CO
THEL, MAINE
GRANITE WORK
aste Designs ASS WORKMANSE
of inquiry promptly answered
Work—Get Our Pri HITNEY & C
action Guaranteed

PH OTIS HO
ATHIC PHYSICIAN
t the Residence of Wallace Clark
9 a. m. to 12 m.
m. except Wednes
s by appointment

WHAT YOU R
Advertised Goods
Bethel Merchants
er of standard ad
cts takes no ch
and price are re
cturer cannot aff
rwise.

ANALLY ADVERT
DS IN BETHEL
occolates,
W. E. BOSSE
ens, E. P. L
Rogers Bros., and Edwards Silver,
E. P. L
Kodaks,
W. E. BOSSE
Rubbers, ROW
Health Products,
W. E. BOSSE
STERN Clothes, ROW
WEAR, LORD'S GAR
dios, E. P. L
R Shoes, ROW
N Fountain Pens,
W. E. BOSSE

TON
RITERS

SOUTH WOODSTOCK

September 20—The last day of month. Rain fell early this and continued till nearly day when the rain clouds lifted the welcome sunshine ap ed.

heavy frost as yet, and many harvesting their crops under favorable conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Davis were er guests Sunday at the Austin
Brown home at Bryant Pond.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Austin of ant Pond, accompanied by Mr.

Mrs. Gerald Davis of this place to Dixfield Thursday, Sept. 27.

g there to attend the funeral ices held for Arno Austin, Le

Austin's father, who very sud passed away Sept. 25. Mr.

tin had been an invalid for eral years. He was buried in Peru cemetery beside the re

ns of his first wife, Mrs. Bessie

Egan Austin, and his son Byron tin. Left to mourn him are his ent wife, three sons and a ghter.

he road work here commencing Davis Corner is nearly completed

as Andrewsville. At the pre time they are cutting through lower hill opposite the resi ce of Gaydon Davis. A great ovement has been shown since k commenced. The long hill op posite the residence of George Da has been cut down and lowered

eral feet, some enormously ge rocks have been dynamited

on the roadbed. This Andrew d, so called, will be one of the st desirable roads in our town, ing a long felt want of the tra ng public.

Monday morning, Oct. 1—The perature has materially changed

October comes in bright and ar with a tang in the air which

aks of cooler days approaching.
Gerald Davis is still digging out atoes. He will have a bumper p with hardly a poor specimen found.

the Willing Workers will have first meeting for the coming work and sociability at the s of their sister member, Mrs.

a Dean, on Wednesday after on, Oct. 3.

Mrs. Ella Sweetser, who was eadfully injured from falling veral weeks past when her wrist d shoulder were broken, has got that now she can be moved from bed to the living room of her

me. Her many friends have most dly remembered her in many ys and all are glad to hear she much better.

Several from South Woodstock
ve been up country after cran ries. Years ago it was quite an ent to go up country after late berries and cranberries even as e as early frosts. Bushels of this amous fruit has been gathered m the old Success meadows, ch place at this date is now the ming land for thousands of wes ta cattle.

On Tuesday evening, September the pupils of Union School an

the instruction of their tea ers, Miss Mary Hendrickson and

Mr. Olive Davis, conducted and ried on a public food sale the ective point being to obtain ney to pay for putting electric lights in their new schoolroom an

t. The supper hour was from 9 to 7:30 p. m. Now, as every y well knows, to start some ing here at South Woodstock for good cause meets with success.

fore the hour of supper time ar ed the smell of baked beans and own bread with steaming hot tee had called a lot of the road

ers to the door and the tables te quickly filled up. There were te waiting in line. The tables te filled several times. Some ee in to supper and after eat rched food to take to their mes, it was so nice. When the ney was counted up this amount,

with a previous sale netting $5.00, amounted to the goodly sum of $28.

Queer things happen sometimes.
Some things that can be explained and some things that never can be,

for some reasons unknown. On Sunday morning, Sept. 16, the cows at Davis homestead were turned into the small pasture lying be tween the buildings and the State highway road running the length of this pasture from Davis Corner nearly to the Paris line. At night time one of the cows came up miss ing. Members of the family went in search—no results. Next day the search was continued but no re ward of finding her. Every foot of the pasture has been gone over,

wet holes investigated, brooks searched in the vicinity. The cow was an exceptional cow, never known to get out of the pasture or to stray from home surroundings.

The mystery is not fathomed. Some one, somewhere, must know the whereabouts of this cow. She may be dead in the pasture but it seems an impossibility so thorough has been the search. The pasture fence was found to be cut in two places.

Who can solve the mystery?

WEST GREENWOOD

Mrs. Laura Bartlett of East Be thel called on Mrs. Harrington and family recently.

Miss May Cross of Arlington and
Mr. and Mrs. Bennett of Locke

Mills called on Mrs. Dearden one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chase called on Mrs. Annie Campbell at Gorham

last week.

Perley Haderkin attended the Norway fair and spent a few days with his sisters.

Dick Laurence of Bethel called on Mr. Bean in Albany Sunday.

Mr. Winslow and friend were callers in town Sunday.

Paul Croteau is working for Er nest Buck on the hay press.

Willie Haderkin helped Mr. Peter kin a few days last week.

Rodney Cross was a caller in Albany Sunday.

The town of Greenwood has a crew of men widening the roads.

Mrs. B. L. Harrington and her sister, Mrs. Bartlett of East Bethel attended the World's Fair Saturday.

Miss Harrington of Lewiston spent the week end in town.

Mr. and Mrs. James Croteau of Bethel called on his brother and family Sunday.

Exclusive Agent

for

RCA VICTOR

RADIOS

and

RCA RADIO TUBES

In sealed packages

E. P. LYON

Bethel, Maine

FREE Typewriting Course with every REMINGTON Portable

Learn easily at home... it costs nothing.
From the great Remington line, select your portable. Then pay only 10c a day. You get the course FREE!
COME IN FOR PARTICULARS

THE OXFORD COUNTY CITIZEN

Bethel, Maine

DISINFECTING SQUASH

HELPS TO REDUCE ROT

Are you one of those people who watch their squashes rot in storage and take it as a matter of course?
You can greatly reduce storage losses by careful disinfection to kill the rot producing fungus.

Before harvesting the squashes disinfect the storage room by spray ing with a solution of one pint of formalin in 6 gallons of water.
Give the storage rack a thorough scrubbing to remove any remains of last years crop.

Let the squashes mature as long as possible without risk of damage by frost. In harvesting be careful not to scratch or bruise the squashes, thus making opening for the disease to enter. Haul them to storage as soon as possible and dip them in formalin solution of the same strength as used for spraying the storage room. Be sure that there is plenty of ventilation so that the squash will dry off quickly.

The disease may live in the seed or the soil. It is a good plan to dis infect seed with mercuric chloride and plant the same ground not of tender than once in three years.

To settle an argument over the number of feathers on the average chicken, Vernon Thornburg, of Barnesville, Ohio, dairy employee, killed and plucked a Plymouth Rock. He reported 8,325 feathers.

In making your feed plans for the winter the feed specialists say be sure to provide for plenty of water, preferably where cows can get it when they want it.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

The Girl Scouts held their meet ing on the lawn of Mrs. Agnes Twaddle on September 25, with an attendance of twenty.

The meeting was opened by forming the horseshoe, singing America, and repeating the Girl Scout Promise. Many games were enjoyed. Among the games was a Treasure Hunt and an Observation Test.

The next meeting will be held on Saturday, Oct. 6, at three o'clock at the home of Mrs. Agnes Twaddle.
Helen Lowe, Scout Scribe

SCHOOL SAVINGS BANK REPORT

Week of October 2

Primary School

Grade	Savings Bank Total	%
I	$2.45	60
II	1.95	51
III	2.00	63
IV	2.35	68

Grammar School

V	$1.00	$2.60	66.6
VI		2.00	77.3
VII	1.00	1.65	66.5
VIII		2.30	54.5

Fourth and Sixth have banners.

To remove shine sponge garment with ammonia water (one table spoon to one quart of water) cover with dampened cloth and press on right side. Remove cloth and brush.
This will remove lustre tempora rily.

The potato stands second only to wheat as human food.

SCHOOL NOTES

Grammar School

The following Sixth Grade pupils received 100% in Spelling for week ending September 28th: Valerie Bean, Hope Bailey, Buddy Clough, Donald Cross, Clayton Crockett,
Eva Deegan, Bradley Hall, Muriel
Hall, Robert Lowe, Mary Jodrey, Barbara Luxton, and Garey York.

Those who received 100% in the Seventh grade: Howard Aubin, Kathryn Davis, Catherine McMillin, Margaret Vail, and Eva Vashaw.

OUR APPRECIATION

WE WISH TO THANK OUR CUSTOMERS FOR THE
KINDLY SPIRIT IN WHICH THEY HAVE RECEIVED
THE NEW REGULATIONS
EFFECTIVE OCTOBER 1ST.

Bethel
National Bank

Bethel, Maine

J. E. Palmer Co.

Portland, Me.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY
SALE

50 Years in Same Location
76 Years In Business

To celebrate this Great Event, we are offering in Every De partment, the Best Values in our history. Below are listed but a few of the many Features. . . During this week only, we are offering in addition to our own fine stock of Fur Coats, selections from one of the best known New York Fur Manu facturers, at a Tremendous Saving.

FUR COATS	regularly priced to 98.00	75.00
FUR COATS	regularly priced to 135.00	100.00
FUR COATS	regularly priced to 185.00	150.00
FUR COATS	regularly priced to 225.00	185.00
FUR COATS	regularly priced to 295.00	245.00
FUR COATS	regularly priced to 350.00	295.00

All beautiful, High Quality Coats

CLOTH COATS, fur trimmed	regularly to 75.00	50.00
CLOTH COATS, fur trimmed	regularly to 95.00	75.00
CLOTH COATS, untrimmed	regularly to 35.00	25.00

ALSO ANNIVERSARY VALUES IN OUR

Underwear Dep't

Hosiery Dep't.

Corset Dep't.

Shoe Dep't.

Millinery Dep't.

Accessory Dep't.

Knitwear Dep't.

Dress Dep't.

THE OXFORD COUNTY CITIZEN PUBLISHED THURSDAYS AT BETHEL, MAINE

CARL L. BROWN, Publisher
Entered as second class matter,
May 7, 1908, at the post office at Bethel, Maine.

Any letter or article intended for publication in the Citizen must bear the signature and address of the author and be written on only one side of the paper. We reserve the right to exclude, or publish contributions in part.

Single copies of the Citizen are one sale at the Citizen office and also by
W. E. Bosserman, Bethel
Donald and Irving Brown, Bethel
Lawrence Perry, West Bethel
George Stearns, Hanover
Murry Cummings, Bryant Pond
John Tebbets, Locke Mills

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1934

BETHEL NEEDS

More and Better Sidewalks—winter and summer,
Rural Fire Protection, Night Watchman—All the Year,
Enforced Traffic Rules, Australian Ballot System for Town Meetings.

Little do ye know your own blessedness; for to travel hopefully is a better thing than to arrive, and the true success is to labor.—
Stevenson.

When you take your car on streets or highways, three definite factors are involved. First, the road. Second, the car. Third, the human element—yourself.

Practically every automobile accident can be traced to one of these three factors, says the Industrial News Review. And the third is infinitely the more important. Highway engineers have done their part to make driving safer and automobile development in safer bodies, brakes, steering, lights and tires have been nothing short of sensational.

For every accident that can be blamed on the road or the automobile, a dozen can be blamed on the driver. It is an established fact that the bulk of accidents occur on good straight highways in ordinary weather, and involve cars whose mechanical condition is adequate.
Apparently, if a road and a car are produced which make it safe to drive ten miles an hour faster than in the past, a legion of drivers will at once start driving 20 miles faster—and the inevitable result is a mounting accident toll.

The present year is witnessing a tremendous increase in accidents over 1933—if the trend continues a new high in fatalities may be established. The cure is knowledge that tells you how to drive under all conditions, and a sense of the responsibility you owe to all who use the public highways. If every motorist would start an individual safety campaign of his own the automobile accident record would go into a tailspin.

Congressmen this year are having a terribly hard time to pick articles to tax which are not produced in their own district.—Pathfinder.

The eighteenth amendment came into existence because the American public believed that no step was too drastic to outlaw the evils that had appeared in the liquor problem. Millions of American citizens had seen the power of the saloon appear in politics, degrading city and state government, and had watched entrenched interests successfully violate both the letter and spirit of the laws that then existed to control the sale of liquor.

The eighteenth amendment was repealed by this same public because they believed that many of the evils existing before were not lessened. Today the American people want temperance. To promote temperance—which means the elimination of drunkenness and license —is the duty of every citizen. The majority of the American people are interested in eliminating abuses of the present as well as of the past, and they intend to succeed.

MAGAZINE SUBSCRIPTIONS

CITIZEN OFFICE
PHONE 15-11

BOSTON IN 1742

A copy of the Boston weekly
News-Letter dated 1742, belonging to Frank Bennett of North Newry, was brought to our attention recently. The paper seemed to carry a fair proportion of advertising, and considerable news concerning
New England towns and Boston shipping. The old fashioned "a" is used quite extensively and italics, both in news and advertising, are used frequently. The following paragraphs show a few of the customs of that period:

"Strayed away from Moses Little of Newbury, a young sorrel Horse about 14 Hands high with a white face: whosoever shall take up the said Horse and return him to the said Moses Little or Michael Dunn of said Newbury, shall have Three Pounds Reward and all necessary Charges paid."

"Choice pickled Lobsters, in Caggs, to be sold at a reasonable Rate, by Philip Lewis, Lobsterman, Living near Mr. Byles' Meeting-House."

"TO BE SOLD"

"Fifteen large Carriage Guns, 5 & 6 Pounders, also Three of a smaller size; as likewise a large Anchor; now lying on the next wharf to the northward of Mr.
Broasden's. Inquire of Thomas Covarley, Goldsmith, near Col.
Hutchinson's."

"Ran away from his Master Capt. George Ruggles of Boston, on the 1st Inst, an Indian Man Servant, named Sylvanus Charles, alias Venus, about 22 Years of Age, a tall lusty Fellow with short Hair, had on a Seaman's Dress. Whoever shall take up said Runaway and him safely convey to his abovesaid Master in Wing's Lane, Boston, shall have Five Pounds Reward, and all necessary Charges paid. All Masters of Vessels are hereby caution'd against carrying of said Servant on Penalty of the Law."

"To be Sold, by Thomas Hubbard, Esq., his Negro Man Peter;
as also a likely Negro Boy, about 15 Years of Age."

"TO BE SOLD"

"A Negro Girl, about 15 Years Old, she has been 3 Months in the Country. Inquire of the Printer."

"TO BE SOLD"

"By Mr. Thomas Aston, next Door to the Governor's, RAISINS of the SUN for Eighteen Pence a Pound."

"To be SOLD by Jeremiah Woodcock of Needham. A House in the West Part of Boston commonly called New-Boston, which has six Fine Rooms in it, with the Land thereto belonging, measuring Forty foot one way and a Hundred the other: Inquire of Mr. Marlon Blacksmith in Boston for further Information."

"Just Imported, and to be sold by Richard Martin in Union Street a variety of Silver & Gold Laces, from 20 s to 7 £ a yard, also Sadlery and embroidery Threads, Vel-lums, Buttons, Tabbies, Gause Handkerchiefs, Velvets, Silver and Gold Girdles, Ribbons &c. at reasonable Rates."

"To be Lett, on reasonable Terms,
A very convenient Tenement,
Barn and Stable with 3 or 4 Wharfs, in the Southerly Part of Boston, very convenient for Landing and Carting of Wood. Any honest Person that would Hire the same, may apply to William Whalen, Junr. and be further inform'd.
N. B. The Rent will be taken out in Carting Business."

Uses for Camphor

China uses camphor for embal-ming purposes. India burns vast quantities in its temples. But western countries are its largest consumers; and the United States takes about 50 per cent of the world's total supply. The demand for camphor increases not only when there is a severe epidemic of Influenza, but when war breaks out or the moving picture industry is booming. Modern scientific research has found a score of new uses for it. Perfume bases, paint thinners, sterilizers, medicines and deodorants are made from various grades of camphor oil. Smokeless gun-powder calls for camphor in its manufacture. Celluloid, used for all kinds of articles, from the baby's rattle to moving picture film, is manufactured from some vegetable fiber like cotton or wood pulp; and camphor is the only substance that can make this cellulose base plastic.

A Fighting Chance

by LAWRENCE
HAWTHORNE

There's a good, old baseball maxim
That is true of life, as well;
And it ought to be adopted
By the folks who try to tell Whether fortune will be better
In the days that lie ahead,
Or be full of disappointments
And unhappiness, instead.

It's a mighty helpful doctrine
For a man to contemplate
When he's facing loss or failure,
Whether trivial or great;
It will give him hope and courage;
It will show him at a glance
That you never are defeated
While you have a fighting chance.

Any baseball star will tell you
That he plays to get the breaks—
Bearing down just so much harder
In the face of bad mistakes;
And he wins a lot of ball games,
For he knows beyond a doubt
That "a game is never ended Till the final man is out!"

THE STORY OF AMOS LUND

BY D. S. BROOKS

In Eight Chapters—Ch. IV

In August this year, Amos had occasion to visit where the severest battle of the Civil War was fought,
—the Battle of Gettysburg. It stirred up memories that thrill us and, also, sadden us.

When Amos' maternal ancestors, that settled in America, came over to this country a part of the Lunds, Chamberlains, and Rosses settled
"North" and the remainder went south of the Mason and Dixon line.
When the Civil War broke out several members of these families saw service in each army. General Robert E. Lee's wife was a connection of the above named, if I have been correctly informed. Amos had an uncle, Theodore, who was a soldier in the Northern army. It is from his Civil War notes that were afterwards published in book form that I gather much of the material for this issue. I feel confident you are getting reliable information.
Sometimes herein I shall quote direct from his publication. I think, as you are reading the life story of Amos that you will be interested in today's historical sketch. Many historians miss these minor incidents that show great loyalty and bravery, in their write-ups of those terrible events. I suppose they try to emphasize the general particulars: feeling they have not time and space to record all the doings of that great struggle.

Amos was not born until a long time after the close of the war,— not until July 1877. His mother had two cousins in the Northern army,
—Colonel Chamberlain and Lieutenant H. S. Melcher. I shall speak of these, near the close, as Amos is justly proud of their records. Also,
I feel that it will be more interesting if I represent myself as an eyewitness and speak of the conflict in the present tense (as now going on).

The Union line is formed,—the artillery is in position. The rebels outnumber us, both in men and guns, but we have the ridge and are on the defensive. The tired men sink upon the ground to catch a few moments sleep before the battle opens. All is still in Gettysburg save the groans of the wounded and dying. It is an anxious night throughout the great loyal North.
Telegrams have been flashing all over the country, bearing the sad tidings of the death of Reynolds and the repulse of his troops. Everyone knows that this battle is to decide to a large extent the fortunes of war. There is no sleep for the people. Strong men are pale with excitement and anxiety, as through the hours of night they talk of the coming conflict. Christians gather in their sanctuaries to pray that success may be ours on the morrow; mothers, wives, and sisters, with pale, upturned faces, pray to God to protect their loved ones in the dangers of the battle. It is the most anxious night through which America ever passed. God grant that we shall never pass through another like it.

At daybreak on the morning of July 2nd we resumed our march, and in a few hours halted within supporting distance of the left flank of our army, about a mile to the right of Little Round Top. The long forenoon passed away, and to our surprise the enemy made no attack. This was very fortunate for our army, as it enabled our men to strengthen our lines of fortifications and obtain a little rest, of which they were in great need.
The rebels were also engaged in throwing up rude lines of defenses, hurry up reinforcements and discussing the line of action they should pursue, for, to use General Lee's own words in his report of the battle, they "unexpectedly found themselves confronted by the Federal army."

The hour of noon passed, and the sun had measured nearly one-half the distance across the western sky, before the assault was made.

THIS IS WHY

I Have A Savings Account in a Mutual Savings Bank.

"Early in this business of keeping house and raising a family I made a discovery.
Every now and then some big expense would come along which we hadn't prepared for,
which wasn't included in our budget."

"So I began to plan accordingly, saving a little more month by month."

"We have had the usual amount of sickness, Christmas presents, birthdays, unexpected repairs on the house, but have been able to meet all the bills without a strain."

When the unexpected happens—you'll be thankful for a savings account.

Bethel Savings Bank
BETHEL, MAINE

Then, as suddenly as a bolt flies from the storm cloud, a dreaded piece of rebel artillery
upon our left flank,—and under the canopy of screaming, in-bursting shells, Gen. Long-corps (Confederate) was hurled
on the troops of Gen. Sickles, stantly our commander discovered the intention of General Lee
to turn and crush our left flank
he had crushed our right at Pcellorsville. It was a terrible slaughter. The brave sons of South never displayed more valiant courage than on that fatternoon of July 2nd. But brave Sickles and the old Third
were equal to the emergency stood as immovable against surging tide as blocks of granite.
But a new and appalling
suddenly threatened the Un-
my. Little Round Top was the
to the entire position. Rebel teries planted on that rocky could shell any portion of our
at their pleasure. For some Sickles had not placed any
try upon this important pos-
A few batteries were seen along its ragged side, but they no infantry support. Lee saw glance that Little Round Top
the prize for which both were contending, and with audacity he determined to win
from his opponent. While the rible charge was being made
the line of General Sickles,
street threw out a whole divi-
by extending his line to his
for the purpose of seizing coveted prize. The danger was once seen by our officers, a brigade from Maine was or-forward to hold the hill against assault of the enemy. In a mo-all was excitement. Every seemed to understand the situ-
and to be inspired by its da-
"Fall in! Fall in!" By the flank! Double quick! March!
away we went under the ter-
artillery fire it was a momenthrilling interest. Shells were ploding on every side. Sickles'
was enveloped in sheets of
and looked like a vast wind-
fire. But so intense was the ef-ment that we hardly noticed surrounding. Up the steep hill
we ran, and reached the crest
the right by file into line!"
command, and "our regiment
assumed the position to which had been assigned. We were the left of our brigade, and
quently on the extreme left
our line of battle. The ploding on every side. Sickles'
was sparsely covered with a
of oak trees, which were too
to afford us any protection.
were crashing through the
above our heads, making so
noise that we could hardly hear
commands of our officers: the
was filled with fragments of ploding shells and splinters
from mangled trees; but we appeared to be as cool and de-
ate in their movements as if
had been forming a line up
parade ground in camp.

(To be continued next week)

Then, as suddenly as a bolt
flies from the storm cloud, a
dreaded piece of rebel artillery
upon our left flank,—and under the canopy of screaming, in-
bursting shells, Gen. Long-
corps (Confederate) was hurled
on the troops of Gen. Sickles,
stantly our commander discovered the intention of General Lee
to turn and crush our left flank
he had crushed our right at Pcellorsville. It was a terrible slaughter. The brave sons of South never displayed more
valiant courage than on that fat-
ternoon of July 2nd. But brave
Sickles and the old Third
were equal to the emergency
stood as immovable against
surging tide as blocks of granite.
But a new and appalling
suddenly threatened the Un-
my. Little Round Top was the
to the entire position. Rebel
teries planted on that rocky
could shell any portion of our
at their pleasure. For some Sickles had not placed any
try upon this important pos-
A few batteries were seen
along its ragged side, but they no infantry support. Lee saw glance that Little Round Top
the prize for which both
were contending, and with
audacity he determined to win
from his opponent. While the rible charge was being made
the line of General Sickles,
street threw out a whole divi-
by extending his line to his
for the purpose of seizing
coveted prize. The danger was once seen by our officers, a brigade from Maine was or-
forward to hold the hill against
assault of the enemy. In a mo-
all was excitement. Every seemed to understand the situ-
and to be inspired by its da-
"Fall in! Fall in!" By the flank! Double quick! March!
away we went under the ter-
artillery fire it was a momen-
thrilling interest. Shells were
ploding on every side. Sickles'
was enveloped in sheets of
and looked like a vast wind-
fire. But so intense was the ef-
ment that we hardly noticed
surrounding. Up the steep hill
we ran, and reached the crest
the right by file into line!"
command, and "our regiment
assumed the position to which had been assigned. We were
the left of our brigade, and
quently on the extreme left
our line of battle. The ploding on every side. Sickles'
was sparsely covered with a
of oak trees, which were too
to afford us any protection.
were crashing through the
above our heads, making so
noise that we could hardly hear
commands of our officers: the
was filled with fragments of
ploding shells and splinters
from mangled trees; but we
appeared to be as cool and de-
ate in their movements as if
had been forming a line up
parade ground in camp.

(To be continued next week)

Cape Cod Cranberries, 1 lb. pk.
Hearts Delight
Santa Clara Prunes, 2 lb.
Choice Muscat
Seeded Raisins, 1 lb. pk.
No. 1 MacIntosh
Apples, 4 lbs. pk.
Sweet Potatoes, 7 lbs. pk.

MAMA'S COOKIES
Oatmeal, Molasses, Nut,
nut Butterfruit and Sarsaparilla Package of 18 cookies.

Schonland's Frankforts, Swift's Pard Dog Food, etc.

Allen's
PHONE 122

COULD ACADEMY NOTES

Freshmen Reception
The annual reception of the Gould Academy under the sponsorship of the William B.
Hall, Thursday evening 27. The children of the academy were the guests of the evening was the
of Miss Ruth Leav-of the Dramatic Dep-cast: Mr. William Foster, Wight; Mrs. Foster, h-Philbrook; Marian
Robert Kirk; Madam
Sylvia Merrill. Scene
ing in the Foster's features of the progra-corded solo by Phyllis songs by Richards Young beautifully decorated leaves, formed an ground for the dance-the march was won by and Chris Onofrio; the by Phyllis Davis and Refreshments of pu-dies were served.

ton Glover, Gould '29, ed to New Hampshire
where he is a member of class. Mr. Glover has an awarded a two hund-scholarship in recognitidid work at that insti-the Oxford County Teach-ation will meet at Goul-on Thursday of this we-ing meeting is schedul-in William Bingham
Because of this com-academy closed Wedneopen until next Monday
ley Cole, Gould '34, Westbrook Junior Co-
land.

first declarations of given Friday by the to-an Judkins, Bessie.
nces Adams, Dwight Stil-Clay, Frances Morrill, ball Helen Stevens, Katheryn Brinck, Florie Bean, Eleanor Hamilin, Jeanet
and Josephine Thurst-resident and Mrs. Chitt-Gray of Bates Colle-of Principal Hangeday, and visited the ne-building.

Arthur Memorial Built on Cornish

On the northwest coast of England, according to Geographic society, of Tintagel have erected memorial to King Arthur, the warrior who, according led Britain's Christianithe Saxon kings of century. At Tintagel
the crumbling ruin of castle—one of the remarkable antique me-where, it is said, King deducted his round table.
Maintaining that a legen-survived many centua respectable origin.
It is explained, believe tales of King Arthur Eachanter, and others,
Tintagel castle is desctracery of crumbling wa-headland, at the foot seas of Cornwall cr-ter. In two parts, the erated by a deep ravine says, once was bridged by steep cliffs and dent stronghold was, in century, impregnable.

As in yore, the iron-stud-the keep is the only ex-ance to the headland, at stone steps lead to a high, narrow ch links the headland Maland.

The castle's banquetting grass-covered floor, is fair and, according to the by the society, it wde that Ygraine, wife of Cornwall, watched the ills Terrabil, on the then Terrabil fell. It was Pendragon, conquer-duke and married the grand holds that King born from this marriage.

WITH THE POETS

To Our Readers—If there is an old song or poem which you cannot find and would like to see in print, write the Citizen. If we are unable to locate it possibly another reader can furnish it for publication.

THE LAST ROSE OF SUMMER

Thomas Moore

'Tis the last rose of summer
Left blooming alone;
All her lovely companions
Are faded and gone;
No flower of her kindred,
No rose-bud is nigh,
To reflect back her blushes,
Or give sigh for sigh.

I'll not leave thee, thou lone one!
To pine on the stem;
Since the lovely are sleeping,
Go, sleep thou with them.
Thus kindly I scatter
Thy leaves o'er the bed
Where thy mates of the garden
Lie scentless and dead.

So soon may I follow,
When friendships decay,
And from love's shining circle
The gems drop away.
When true hearts lie withered,
And fond ones are flown,
O! who would inhabit
This bleak world alone?

THERE'S ROOM AT THE TOP

Lilla T. Elder

The hill of success may be steep,
Boys,
And hard work it may be to climb,
But the way grows smooth toward
The top, boys,
And it's only one step at a time!

Be sure you are honestly shod,
Boys!
Take the staff of Self-help in your hand,
Watch out for the rough, rocky trend, boys,
And trust not to gravel and sand.
Look not far up into the clouds,
Boys,
Nor yet on the valley below,
But steadfastly, patiently, climb,
Boys!
Each step of the way learn to know!

Respect well the right of the road,
Boys,
Let others more swift pass you by,
And fail not to hold out a hand,
Boys,
To all those who stumble and sigh.

There's plenty of room at the top,
Boys,
Though crowded the pathway and long,
And no one need fail in the end,
Boys,
If he's honest and patient and strong.

GILEAD

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Lawrence are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter born last Wednesday evening at the St. Louis Hospital, Berlin, N. H.

A. J. Blake returned home from Island Pond Sunday, Vt., Sunday after being called there by the serious illness and death of his brother, Elmer Blake.

Miss Phyllis Curtis of the Maine Eye and Ear Infirmary, Portland, spent the week end at her home here.

Lester Witter and family have moved into one of Chester Wheeler's rents.

Charles Cole is confined to his home by illness.

Mrs. William Carr of Temple, N.
H., is a guest of her parents, Mr.
and Mrs. E. B. Curtis.

Mrs. Katherine Kirk is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Mary Lawrence.
Mrs. Maud Hart of Berlin, N. H., was a recent guest of her daughter, Mrs. Muriel Lapointe.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Arenburge and children of Bethel, N. H., were the guests of relatives in town Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Edward Holden were visitors in Gorham, N. H. recently.

Mortense Welch, home demonstration agent, Auburn, says, "I held a meeting on darning with the Mechanic Falls 4-H Club girls.
Each girl brought a stocking to be darned and completed it before the afternoon was over."

NEWRY CORNER

The Farm Bureau members met with Mrs. Sumner Davis September 19. Subject of the meeting was Cake Making.

Mrs. Sara Feindal, who has had employment at the Bear River T.
House for several months, has completed her duties there and is assisting in the home of Mrs. Lucy Abbott at East Rumford for several days.

Several from here attended Waterford and Andover fairs last week.

The community was saddened
last week on hearing of the death of Mrs. Mary Bond of Garden City, N. Y., a former summer guest of this town. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved family.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurston and son Warren of Errol and Mrs. Ida Warren of Topsfield, Mass., were in town Sunday.

Archie Cole and family have moved into the house occupied by Mr. Swan and family on Emerson Hill.

William Marquis is working at Dummer, N. H., for the present.

NEWRY

Leslie Corbett and H. R. Powers are shingling the Blanchard house at North Newry.

Miss Millie Williams went to the World's Fair Saturday with Mrs.
Louise Learned.

George Learned is at work on the Sunday River road with his truck.
William Walker, North Newry, worked for Walter Powers last Thursday putting in a new barrel for the water.

Mr. and Mrs. F. I. French were at the farm two days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Foster and children went to Magalloway last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Noyes of Bethel.

A crew of men will begin work
Monday morning on the Branch road.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Powers were on Sunday River last Sunday.

Quite a number of people went from this place to Waterford Fair last Saturday but the rain must have made it disagreeable.

Harry Powers and family were in Bethel Saturday.

Sunday callers at H. R. Powers' were
L. E. Wight and S. T. Tripp.

NORTH NEWRY

Lumber is being carried up
Spec Mountain to build a camp.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ferren were callers at L. E. Wight's Wednesday.

Roger Hanscom is working on the road on the Branch.

J. B. Vall is sick in bed with a bad cold.

Quite a number from Newry attended Andover Fair last week.

F. W. Wight took eleven head of cattle.

An agent from the Eastern Tractor Co. was in town Sunday calling on the Selectmen and Road Commissioner.

Carrie Wight was in Dixfield and Rumford Monday.

The "Harris" bakery truck which has been coming up Bear River all summer discontinued this route
last week.

Several from Newry attended Pomona Grange at Waterford last Tuesday.

William Walker is making some repairs on the Blanchard house.

Mrs. C. W. Robertson and Mrs.
George Learned called at L. E.
Wight's Sunday evening.

Friends of Miss Hazel Hanscom will be pleased to learn that she has been chosen president of her class at Woodstock High School.

SONGO POND

Most everyone from this way attended the World's Fair, Friday and Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Mrs. Charlie Gorman were Sunday callers at Leonard Kimball's.

Alton Rich spent the week end in North Waterford at W. W. Bird's.

Fred Littlefield was a Sunday caller at Herbert Damon's.

Mahlon Doughty spent Saturday night and Sunday at Herbert Damon's.

Fred Murphy plowed a mayflower bud Sunday, Sept. 30th.

UPTON

Rev. Mr. Halladay, who is candi-dating in the upper part of this parish arrived Monday of this week at Rev. R. S. Irons' residence. From there he will go to Errol, N. H., where he will stay during October while he is preaching in this parish.

Mrs. Bertha Judkins, Mrs. E. O.
Judkins and Mrs. H. I. Abbott were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Judkins in Andover over the week end.

Rev. John Irons of Middlebury,
Vt., was the guest of his son, Rev.
R. S. Irons, a few days last week.

Mrs. S. J. Messenger of Kingston,
N. Y., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. R. S. Irons.

Miss Gladys Doughty, who has been preaching in the upper part of this parish during the summer months, has returned to her school in Newton Center, Mass. She was the guest of S. F. Peaslee during the last few days of her stay here.

Mrs. Leslie Fuller and children have gone to Bryant Pond for an extended stay with her mother.

Miss Katharine Barnett of Upton and Franklin Enman of Rumford were married a few days ago.

A reception was tendered Mr.
and Mrs. Howard Douglass at Bethel last Friday night, after which the young couple returned to his home in Upton.

NEWS FROM

BOSEBUCK CAMPS

WILSON'S MILLS

New arrivals at camp last week were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter Perry, Southport, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs.
E. A. Brone, Rockland; Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Riley, Portland; Mr. M.
Nicoll, Jr., Rye, N. Y.; H. A. Bery, Raybrook, N. Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Geo.
R. Webb, Stratford, Conn.; H. Eugene Hiene, Philadelphia, Pa.; and Eustice Dwyer, New York City.

The fishing has been especially good for the past week, the following fish being taken: E. B. Austin, salmon weighing 2½, 3 and 4½ lbs.
Mrs. Frank Congdon, salmon weighing 2½, 3½ and 1½ lbs.
Frank Congdon, salmon weighing 2½ and 3 lbs. Mrs. Arthur Garland, a salmon weighing 2 lbs. and a trout weighing 1½ lbs. Leon Arnold, salmon weighing 1½ and 4 lbs. J. W. Perry, salmon weighing 1½ and 2 lbs. Also several smaller fish.

Eugene Hiene and Eustice
Dwyer spent Monday night at Parmachenee Dam with their guides, Freeland Clark and Alfred Hart.
Perley Flint was in Bethel the first of the week.

SOUTH ALBANY

Miss Winola Kimball has employment in Westbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Allen and family of Bethel spent the week end in their camp at Albany.

Rev. W. I. Bull conducted the services at the Albany Church on Sunday.

Sunday callers at Roy Wardwell's were Mr. and Mrs. George Allen and family and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Knights from North Waterford.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nutting and Jean Inman were guests at Isaac Wardwell's Sunday.

Miss Alice Andrews from Bryant Pond was a guest in the family of Roy Wardwell over the week end.

Ivan Kimball and Leo Stearns came home from Grafton over the week end.

Howard Allen and Leon Kimball are working on the road.

Mrs. Harry Spring returned home Sunday from a visit in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Roy Wardwell was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Kimball at Locke Mills Sunday evening.

Mrs. Hugh Stearns has moved to the home of W. B. Cummings for the winter.

Ernest McAllister visited at David McAllister's Saturday.

NORTH WATERFORD

Guests at George Kimball's over the week end were Mr. and Mrs.
Ober Kimball and son, Arthur, of Waterville, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sanderson and daughter Priscilla from Massachusetts, and Winfield Kimball.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard Littlefield and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Hall spent the week end with their grandmother, Mrs. Nell Farmer, and attended the fair.

We are glad to hear that Ralph Perkins is gaining.

Clayton Littlefield of Lovell spent the week end with his brother, Jess Littlefield.

Annie Hazelton attended Pomona Grange at South Waterford Tuesday.

Marion Brown has been visiting her grandparents at Papoose Pond.
They have started working on the Federal road here.

The spool mill has started again after being closed for a few weeks.

NORTHEAST LOVELL

Mrs. Elmon McDaniels and baby daughter, Peggy Ann, visited at B.
F. Kendall's Sunday, Sept. 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fox, Mrs.
Marion Kendall and Miss Iva Kendall went to Norway Tuesday.

Bert Kendall has been painting for Vernist Harriman at Slab City.
Clint Milliken worked two days last week for Webster McAllister on his new house.

Some of the people from here attending North Waterford fair were Mrs. George Mills and two sons, Carl and Dwight, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Milliken, Mr. and Mrs.
Webster McAllister and son, Ivan,
Mr. and Mrs. Bert Kendall and daughter, Iva, James Brackett, Arlington Files and Herman Richards.

Mrs. Etta McAllister is working three days a week for Mrs. Agnes Fox. Mrs. Fox is quite a bit better.
She has been suffering from heart trouble and nervous prostration.
We had a heavy rain here Saturday and Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Wilson and family were Sunday afternoon callers at Clint Milliken's.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE

Whereas Clyde L. Whitman, of Bethel, County of Oxford, State of Maine, by his mortgage deed dated December 15, 1930, and recorded in Oxford County Registry of Deeds, Book 402, Page 158, conveyed to the undersigned Lucien J. Andrews, of Albany in said County, a certain parcel of land situated in said Bethel, with the buildings thereon, bounded and described as follows:
Being so much of Lots Numbered 31 and 32 in the second range of lots in said Bethel as lies on the easterly side of the highway leading over Grover Hill,—bounded northerly by land formerly of Freeland Bennett; easterly by land formerly of Eben S. Kilborn; southerly by land of Fritz J. Tyler and by a small parcel of ten acres, more or less, formerly owned by Noah Palmer, now owned by said Whitman; westerly by said highway.
Said premises being the Levi N.
Bartlett place, so-called.

Also another parcel of land situated in said Bethel, on said Grover Hill, and being the ten acre parcel above named.

Said above named real estate being subject to a certain other mortgage held by Bethel Savings Bank, of Bethel, Maine.

And whereas the condition of said mortgage has been broken;
Now, therefore, by reason of the breach of the condition thereof, the said Lucien J. Andrews claims a foreclosure of said mortgage.
Dated September 17, 1934.

LUCIEN J. ANDREWS
State of Maine, Oxford ss.
September 17, 1934.

Personally appeared the above named Lucien J. Andrews and made oath that the foregoing instrument is true, and acknowledged the same to be his free act and deed, before me

ELLERY C. PARK
Justice of the Peace.

PROBATE APPOINTMENT

The following subscribers
give notice that they have received the appointments as indicated by the Probate Court of Oxford County. All persons having debts against the estates represented are desired to present them for settlement, and if de-bted thereto are requested to make payment immediately.

Chancy C. Bryant, late of deceased; William C. Bryant Bethel, executor without
Aug. 28, 1934.
Timothy B. Gill, late of deceased; Ellery C. Park Bethel, administrator de bono with bond, Aug. 28, 1934.
Carl H. Swan, late of Green deceased; Eva F. Swan of Mills, administratrix, without
Aug. 28, 1934.

STATE OF MAINE

To all persons interested in of the Estates hereinafter At a Probate Court, held at in and for the County of Ox-the third Tuesday of Septem-the year of our Lord one nine hundred and thirty-four by adjournment from day to from the third Tuesday of September. The following having been presented for thereupon hereinafter ated, it is hereby ORDERED That notice thereof be giv-all persons interested, by a copy of this order to be pub-three weeks successively in ford County Citizen a news-published at Bethel, in said that they may appear at a Court to be held at said Pa-
the third Tuesday of October, 1934, at 9 of the clock in the noon, and be heard thereon see cause.

Alice G. Twichell, late of deceased; Petition for the appointment of Malcolm G. How-Trustee, presented by Ad-French, beneficiary under the of said deceased.
Witness, Peter M. Mac-
Judge of said Court at Paris 18th day of September in the
of our Lord one thousand nine dred and thirty-four.
27 FRED W. ROWELL, Re-

Suredra

THE LASTING ROOM

Have just unloaded car of Reeves copper sta-vanized roofing, all 26
Let us quote applied pri-

We also have just una car of very nice CEDAR SHINGLE

Lumber and Millwork

H. Alton Bac

Bryant Pond, M

If Sick

Save Money

by using an economical family reacts quickly and favorably, enabling resume your usual duties with-Thousands of families keep in good by depending on "L. F." Atwood's cure. Specific for indigestion, colic, constipation, headaches, colds, etc.
50c bottle. Sold everywhere.

"L. F." Atwood's
Medicine

Wedding Invitations or Announcements Printed at the Office

Official Testing Station

No. 612

Brakes Relined at Right Prices

GUARANTEED BATTERY, $4.25

LORD'S GARAGE

PHONE 25

BETHEL, M

CHAPTER I

an automobile lurched only rutted roads. When lurch, it skidded. A c-penetrating fog transforinto ghostly giants, how-weird dwarfs and filled Moisture dripped from twbranches. The smell of the behind the slackly fasten-curtains of the car. The lear driver stopped the engi-limbed out.
at is the matter, Mr. F-Prudence Schuyler inquir-
the cavernous gloom of seat. leaky. Guess they'll hwe get there, though."
passenger valiantly swallow-relaxation of concern.
encouragement on the h-woman beside her. She reed someone to pull her su-the pit of depression.
herself.
ator purred alongside.
at you, Si? What's the n-tire trouble? Flat?"
voice was hollow, muffled voice. Shut within the ear, Prudence could see n-the uncanny mist.
flat yet."
the gruffness of his e judged that Mr. Puffer
e for the person who film.
the girl come?" -
re was eagerness in the q-a hint of anxiety, more tt of arrogance. If the wher could talk, she wdsaid that its shake was wer to keep quiet, Prudence rry-me, you wouldn't expalks to come to the country storm, would you? What is, guess she'll got to the house 'bout tomorrow."
red brick house! Her hou-voice in the fog was inq-for her, Prudence Schuy-had Mr. Puffer evaded n? She watched him as ed his seat.
one me the minute she sl."
trant from the man at
was the only response.
all light shot into the golof its own powerful headlig-windled to a spark.
ence leaped forward. "W-voice, which sounded like of the fog, inquiring for ffer?"
y did you sidetrack bi-tell him that I was arriving?"
rry-me, you wait an' you Miss Schuyler. Whatta me-tomorrow you'll have kin-bearin's an' I'll know what len Calloway'll do you to him, if he can."
me up! You're not allud-atrimonial tie by any chan-
?"
driver looked back. "Glad on laugh. When I met station, I was afraid you to break out cryin'. It sean night for you to arriveach further to go. We the Gerard place now."
e evident that he conside in the fog a closed li-ouldn't he feel that she wingling with curiosity? P-asked herself. She had b-been indifferent. She s-glad to know there is so familiar to pass."
all always like this; j-all the sun shines. Gerard neighbor on the east, that can call it being a neighthe houses are two milla folks come down o-

HILLTOPS CLEAR

By Emilie Loring

CHAPTER I

An automobile lurched over rutted roads. When it lurched, it skidded. A cold, penetrating fog transformed into ghostly giants, houses and trees, and filled the air with a damp, sticky moisture. The smell of the sea behind the slacks fastened around the car. The lean, driver stopped the engine and stepped out.

"What is the matter, Mr. Puffer?" Prudence Schuyler inquired the cavernous gloom of the seat.

"I'm not sure, guess they'll hold us here, though," the passenger bravely swallowed a shudder of concern. She encouraged on the hand of a woman beside her. She realized someone to pull her spirit out of the pit of depression, she herself.

"What's the matter, Mr. Puffer?" Prudence Schuyler inquired the cavernous gloom of the seat.

"I'm not sure, guess they'll hold us here, though," the passenger bravely swallowed a shudder of concern. She encouraged on the hand of a woman beside her. She realized someone to pull her spirit out of the pit of depression, she herself.

"What's the matter, Mr. Puffer?" Prudence Schuyler inquired the cavernous gloom of the seat.

"I'm not sure, guess they'll hold us here, though," the passenger bravely swallowed a shudder of concern. She encouraged on the hand of a woman beside her. She realized someone to pull her spirit out of the pit of depression, she herself.

"What's the matter, Mr. Puffer?" Prudence Schuyler inquired the cavernous gloom of the seat.

"I'm not sure, guess they'll hold us here, though," the passenger bravely swallowed a shudder of concern. She encouraged on the hand of a woman beside her. She realized someone to pull her spirit out of the pit of depression, she herself.

"What's the matter, Mr. Puffer?" Prudence Schuyler inquired the cavernous gloom of the seat.

"I'm not sure, guess they'll hold us here, though," the passenger bravely swallowed a shudder of concern. She encouraged on the hand of a woman beside her. She realized someone to pull her spirit out of the pit of depression, she herself.

"What's the matter, Mr. Puffer?" Prudence Schuyler inquired the cavernous gloom of the seat.

"I'm not sure, guess they'll hold us here, though," the passenger bravely swallowed a shudder of concern. She encouraged on the hand of a woman beside her. She realized someone to pull her spirit out of the pit of depression, she herself.

"What's the matter, Mr. Puffer?" Prudence Schuyler inquired the cavernous gloom of the seat.

"I'm not sure, guess they'll hold us here, though," the passenger bravely swallowed a shudder of concern. She encouraged on the hand of a woman beside her. She realized someone to pull her spirit out of the pit of depression, she herself.

For the summer, but I reckon you've come to stay, judgin' by the truck load of stuff I carted up to the red brick house the other day."

For no reason she could explain to herself, Prudence Schuyler evaded an answer. With the intention of turning the driver's attention from her affairs, she suggested:

"Tell me about the Gerard family."

Her ruse succeeded. "I'll tell you about the Gerards; perhaps 'twill take your mind off the rough going. The estate, which includes plane landing field, golf links, mountain streams, an' 'bout two miles of pond shore besides the sea front, belongs to Rod Gerard. His name's Rodney, but the townspeople call him Rod. He's one of those rich fellers you read about who fly airplanes, own a string of polo ponies, an' have a vally to bring up their breakfast, crease their pants, an' lay out their pink silk pajamas—but he ain't a bit stuck-up."

"Sounds like a first family of Hollywood."

"Whatta mean is, folks here think a lot of Rod, but he has an older brother Walter an' that brother has a wife. Walt was the son by old man Gerard's first marriage; that wife didn't have any money, neither did he. After she died, Gerard, who was a handsome, gifted man, married an heiress and Rod's their child. They built a house of stone and oak on a high ledge; that's the name of the place—High Ledges."

"It has a sort of approach-if-you-dare sound."

"As I was sayin', Rod's mother loved every inch of the land, turned abandoned quarry holes into gardens. She and her husband are buried in one of them. Old man Gerard died, then she went several years ago, and Rod—well, Rod was just out of law school and crazy about flying when he came into a big fortune; perhaps you've met fellers like that."

"Just like that!" Prudence concurred bitterly, and hoped in the next second that the man had not noticed the sting in her voice.

"He didn't show up here for two years after he lost his mother. Then last June he opened the place, and who'd he bring with him but Walt Gerard and his wife and little girl. Walt lit out pretty quick, but the Mrs. seized the reins of management and how she did drive. She's one of them women who's so busy helpin' God run his world that she lets her own folks get along as best they can. She's all a-twitter, winks one of her cold blue eyes when she thinks she's been smart; before you've been talkin' to her five minutes, she'll lug in a remark about 'my cousin, the ambassador.' She kept the house full of company all summer, young folks, but the girls were so homely they'd have stopped even one of them electric clocks which is supposed to run forever. She's a wise one."

"I hadn't supposed there were any 'homely girls' now, they know so well how to look like a million. Why is Mrs. Walter Gerard wise? Not because she doesn't care for beauty?"

"Whatta mean is, Walt, her husband, is handsome as a movie actor. She is tall, with horses' teeth and a kind of horse-shaped face. Guess she was handsome once—the woman here say she's a nifty dresser—must have been or Walt never would have married her. He—well, he knows where the corn crib is. Their kid is thirteen years old. She's cute, but that curious that folks look up everything when they see her coming. Rod's awful good to her and she worships him. The Walt Gerards haven't much money. Rod gives them an income. That's another reason his sister-in-law doesn't want pretty girls around. 'Twould upset her apple cart' terrible if he should marry."

"Has Mr. Rodney Gerard no mind of his own?"

"Yes—yes, he has, but since his mother passed away, Rod's kinder lazy; besides, he's got the idea some girl will marry him for his money." Puffer's voice deepened with affectionate anxiety. "You see,

Prudence Schuyler's Throat Tightened as She Blinked at the Red Brick House She Had Inherited.

he has all he can spend. This is, I'm guessing so. Perhaps he thinks, why should I work now an' take a job from someone else?"

"Here we are, Miss Schuyler, this is your uncle's place. I forgot; it's yours now. Sorry you had such a tough night to arrive."

He stepped the car in the road before brick gateposts and sounded a lugubrious horn. In response, the house door opened and let out a stream of yellow light; a soft, cushiony voice called:

"That you, Si?"

"That's Mother—my wife," Puffer explained, as he unfurled the curtains on Prudence's side of the car. He helped her out, then extended a bony hand to the gaunt woman who seemed to unfold like an extension ladder as she stepped cautiously to the ground.

Prudence Schuyler's throat tightened as she blinked at the red brick house she had inherited.

A woman, designed on the feather-bed plan, with an extra chin or two in the best Rembrandt manner, greeted her in the hall.

"Come right in and wash and take off your hat. Supper's all ready, dearie. When you get something to eat, things'll look different. Life can seem awful dark and dreary on an empty stomach."

Prudence achieved a smile. "Thank you, Mrs. Puffer. This is Jane Mack, who has come to help me keep house. She has been a standby in our family since the first day she came to make little girl frocks for me. Will you tell her where to find things, please?"

As the two women disappeared, Prudence entered the room on her right. Her brown eyes, already black from emotion, dilated as she saw herself reflected in the long old-fashioned pier glass between the windows.

"Not too bad," she made a gamine face at the looking-glass girl, before she turned to inspect her surroundings. The room was cozy, homey. Her spirit stirred damp wings. Her back-to-the-farm venture might not prove the flop it had seemed a few moments ago.

The dining room was cheery with crackling logs in the Franklin fireplace when she entered a few moments later. A huge platter of savory beef stew, garnished with fluffy white dumplings flanked by piles of plummy brown bread, gave out an appetizing aroma. For the first time since she had left New York Prudence's heart felt warm.

"Oh, how tempting! Come, Macky, won't you sit with us and serve? It will seem more homey to have you here."

Stark, thin-lipped Jane Mack, her high cheek bones flanking red flags of excitement, took her seat with an air of being about to commit a social blunder. The rosy-faced stout woman plumped into her chair with a contented sigh.

"Dearie, I'll do just that." After an interval devoted to serving and eating, she sympathized: "Hope you didn't mind the trip from the railroad station. Seven miles isn't far, but it's a long way to drive over a strange road in a fog."

"Only seven! I thought it must at least have been a thousand." The satisfying food was ringing up the curtain of depression. "That is ungrateful when Mr. Puffer diverted our thoughts by most interesting description of our neighbors."

Jane Mack made her one contribution to the conversation. "Do you have movies here, Mrs. Puffer?"

"Three times a week in the village. The manager tries to show the films people want to see."

"Does he?" Jane Mack's eyes snapped. "I love mystery and gangster pictures."

Prudence gazed at the thin face in speechless amazement. She had known the woman almost all her life, but had she been taking her to a picture, she would have selected one with de luxe settings and smart frocks. How little one could tell what was going on in a person's mind, even the mind of someone near and dear. She said aloud:

"Now we'll help clear away and do the dishes."

"Not you, dearie. You go into what your uncle called the living room, and set. If Miss Mack wants to lend a hand, perhaps she'll be more contented to be busy."

Curled in the depths of a wing chair before the purring fire, Prudence looked about the room—indubitably a man's room—which almost over night had become hers. Her interested eyes wandered on. Above the mantel hung the one picture the room presented: a delicately colored engraving of Franklin at the court of France. Benjamin, stage center, bent his head to receive a wreath from the gorgeously appareled Countess Polignac; while from a divan, Louis the Sixteenth and Marie Antoinette looked on with royal indifference.

They all had been real once, the girl mused; they had held their heads high while their hearts broke, they had smiled through tragedy, while she, with youth, health, opportunity, and her brother, had fairly wallowed in self-pity these last few weeks.

She sprang to her feet. "I'll make a vow, now, that from this moment I forewear self-pity. I will regard this experience at—what shall I name the place which has a lift to it? I know! Prosperity farm! Grand—at Prosperity farm as an adventure which will lead to health for David and great, good fortune."

"I thought I was coming to a treadmill of endless monotones, and within the first hour a hollow voice—which set little merry pranks pricking through my veins—rumbles through the fog:

"Has the girl come?"

"Meaning me. Why does the man want to know the moment I arrive? Why will he try to tie me up tight to him? That was an interesting bit of biography Mr. Puffer volunteered about our neighbors. I'm willing to wager my first crop of chickens that I shall detect the Gerard heir. Rich playboy. I have no illusions about his type. If I meet him, I'll be colder than an electric ice-box running on high. Also something tells me that Mrs. Walt and I will be antagonistic from the start. Maybe, though, I won't meet her; maybe she won't see her farming neighbor even as a dot on her social horizon."

"Miss Prue, I'm ready to go up now," Jane Mack called. Mack announced from the threshold. "Mrs. Puffer showed me where to find the supplies. I guess she'll be a good neighbor. Wish I hadn't seen that procession in my tea cup, though."

"Now, Macky, don't look for trouble in tea grounds; haven't we had enough fairly sitting in our laps these last weeks without hunting out more? Come on up, let's see the rest of the house."

Interest in Prudence's excited into excited anticipation as they went from room to room.

"Macky, think of having a room to house in which to spend our after years in an apartment? Well, make it a dream. We will warm it with color till it makes hearts glow just to enter it."

A faint pink crest under the woman's skin. Her washed-out eyes shone with a lovely light.

"You'll make hearts glow all right, Miss Prue. Your brother said to me just before we left the apartment,

"I'm not afraid for Prue. She'll make a home wherever she is. She's like her mother."

Prue slipped her hand within the crook of the woman's thin arm and for an instant pressed her cheek against her hard shoulder.

"I suppose there isn't a person in this village who doesn't know that my brother's wife ran away with my sister's husband," she said in a muffled voice.

"There, there, Miss Prue, suppose they do? 'Twasn't your brother David's fault nor your sister Julie's. If folks here know about it at all, they know that. If you make too much of it, they may think there's something back of it all you're ashamed of. I know folks."

Prudence smiled and patted the woman's bony hand before she entered the room she had selected for herself.

Long after she had extinguished the light, she lay with wide-open eyes staring at the fog which hung like a curtain of gray gauze before the wide-open window. She watched the steamy fringe of water dripping from the window as she lived over the last weeks. As if his heart had not been sufficiently uprooted by the desertion and tragic death of his wife, David, whose health had been undermined by service overseas, had been ordered to give up work and live in the country.

The country! The inexorable command had staggered her at first. How could they go with no money for living? When the crash had come in their fortunes six months before, she had opened a studio and had worked professionally at what had been a delightful avocation—the craft of designer and maker of jewelry and silver boxes. Each month had seen an increase in the number and importance of her orders; then had come the command to go to the country, which had meant that she must give up her shop.

While she was struggling with her problems and doggedly assuring herself that she would find a way to relieve the situation, a way opened, but not from her effort. Her father's brother, Austin Schuyler, had invested part of his small fortune in an acreage, then had made the dream of years come true by buying and stocking a Maine farm with the remainder. For the first time in his life, he had said, he had what he wanted—and then one morning he didn't wake. He had willed the Maine property and five thousand dollars in cash to his niece Prudence.

The legacy had providentially answered the on-to-the-country problem. Now that the strain was eased, she had had a confused remembrance of the days during which she had cleared and subletted the apartment. At the last moment, Jane Mack had begged to go with her. Her eyes were giving out for sewing, she had said, but she knew almost everything there was to know about a house—she had been trained by a New England mother. Prudence had hugged her in her relief. Jane Mack might be grim and a confirmed pessimist but she could cook, while she herself farmed and, if opportunity and time allowed, worked at her craft.

Could she afford to keep St. Puffer as helper on the place? her thoughts ran on. She couldn't afford not to at present. Already he had stood like a guardian angel between her and the voice in the fog; how he had grown the same, "Len Carroway." What had the man wanted? Something in his demand had antagonized her. "Tomorrow" was almost here. So she would know.

The music harkening swung into her room the two frail, transparent wings. Had the wind changed?

She ran to the window. The fog had cleared as if by magic. With a surge of indefinable longing, the girl looked up at the star-punctured heavens. With a shaky laugh at her own absurdity, she sang out her hand toward the man in the moon.

"Your excellency, I thank you for this royal welcome! Prue of Prosperity farm salutes you!"

(To be continued next week)

Maine is one of the ten states which, through their Extension Services have given housewives adequate information on canning foods to kill the botulism organism and prevent botulism, according to Dr. F. W. Towner of the University of Illinois in addressing the American Public Health Association recently.

Classified Advertising

Twenty-five words or less, one week, 25 cents; second week, 15 cents; each additional week, 10 cents.

Each word more than 25, one cent per word the first week, and one-half cent per word each succeeding week.

Any changes of copy after first insertion will be considered a new advertisement and charged accordingly.

For Sale

FOR SALE—Lumber shed and two car garage, formerly used by H. I. Bean, lumber dealer, L. E. DAVIS.

FOR SALE—R. I. Red Pullets. April hatch. Range grown, healthy. Priced right for quick sale. GUY BARTLETT, East Bethel, R. F. D. 1, 26p.

FOR SALE—MacIntosh, Blue Pear Main and Wolf River apples. M. F. TYLER, Bethel, Grover Hill, 26lf.

FOR SALE—Cord Wood, sawed to order. Stove wood seasoned under cover. FRED I. CLARK, Bethel, 22lf.

New and Used Ranges, and Franklin Stoves. New Peterson range burner now installed for $25. All brass and chromium plated. Electric Furnace Burners. Furnaces vacuum cleaned on order. H. ALTON BACON, Bryant Pond, Me. 27

Miscellaneous

LOST—Between Central Service Station and Rowe's Store, Saturday evening between eight and nine o'clock. Swiss movement fountain wrist watch in diamond and emerald set case. Suitable reward if returned to Mrs. Philip Brown, Northwest Bethel. 26

Adelaide Louise Beauty Parlor—Finger wave, marcel, manicure, 35c. Hot oil shampoo and wave, 85c. Facial, 50c. Elsa B. Aubin, Mason St., Tel. 43-2, 23lf.

Firearms, Ammunition, and Trappers' Supplies, bought, sold, and exchanged by H. I. BEAN, Bethel, Maine. Dealer in Raw Furs, Deer Skins, Hides and Pelts. 2tf

Tadpole Lives Like Fish, Then Develops Into Frog

The frog begins life as a tiny black speck of an egg surrounded by an albuminous coat. This coat swells enormously when exposed to water and serves to protect the delicate egg within. After many weeks the egg hatches into a tiny wriggler with a very long and visible intestine and a long tail. This tadpole lives as a fish, "breathing" in the water through its gills.

After many weeks of feeding upon the algae in the pond, the tadpole undergoes transformation into a frog. Its long tail is absorbed completely, and its intestines shrink to one-fourth of the original length. Since it now subsists upon an animal diet, it has no need for such a lengthy digestive apparatus for this highly nutritious food. As a vegetarian in its youth, it required huge quantities of algae to derive the nourishment necessary for growth, hence the long intestine.

The young frog sprouts legs slowly, and loses its gills which are replaced by a pair of lungs, making the frog an air breather. In breathing, the frog must swallow its air, very much as it swallows its food. A dislocated or broken jaw in a frog would be a serious if not fatal matter. The moist thin skin also serves as an organ of respiration in the frog.

Born

In Berlin, N. H., Sept. 25, to the wife of John D. Lawrence of Giload, a daughter.

Died

In Island Pond, Vt., Sept. 23, Elphalet A. Blake, native of Giload aged 82 years.

In Dixfield Sept. 25, Arno Austin.

HERE AND THERE IN MAINE

One of Maine's popular summer resorts, Ontio Hotel, Ogunquit, was destroyed by fire last Sunday. The loss is estimated at $75,000. It will probably be rebuilt.

Nine stores in North Anson and Madison were broken into by thieves last Saturday night. Money and clothing were taken.

State highway police have received orders to remove all paper and cardboard political signs that are no longer useful along the roadways.

Miss Gertrude Page, daughter of Blin W. Page, and her companion, Carman Gardner, were burned to death in an automobile wreck near Lakewood last Wednesday.

It is announced that a 5 per cent raise in wages at the Continental Paper and Bag mill at Rumford will go into effect Nov. 1.

The C. C. C. camp at Wild River will be abandoned Nov. 1st. Those stationed there will transfer to Augusta.

F. Harold Dubord of Waterville, defeated Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator, has indicated that he would contest the election of Frederick Hale of Portland, who was re-elected.

Potassium Is ChemicalThat Is Used Many Ways

Potash used as fertilizer is called potassium chloride and potassium sulphate. In various other forms the commodity has many important uses. Millady's furs are dressed with potassium aluminum sulphate and it may purify the water she drinks. The colored design on grandma's calico dress was printed with the use of potassium bichromate which also is extensively used by photographers, tanners and blue-print paper manufacturers.

Every drug store, says a National Geographic society bulletin, contains a jar of potassium bromide for medicinal use. Glass and soft soap manufacturers employ potassium carbonate, while potassium chlorate is essential in the manufacture of firecrackers and rockets, photographers' flashlight powder and some paints and toothpastes.

Gold is extracted from ore with potassium cyanide. Potassium hydroxide is extensively used in soap, disinfectant and grease-making. The pink color of canned corn beef is caused by potassium nitrate, better known as saltpeter, which is a preservative and also is used in the manufacture of black blasting powder, shrapnel shells, fuses and smokeless powder charge.

Potassium acetate and potassium permanganate are bleachers and dyes. The latter also finds its way into medical preparations, is a strong disinfectant, and is used in the manufacture of saccharine. Potassium tartrate is the chief constituent of cream of tartar. Baking powder manufacturers use about 90 per cent of the supply. In the chemical laboratory the uses of potash are legion.

Potash

The name potash was derived from the early method of producing the commodity. Wood ashes were placed in a pot and water poured over them from time to time. Then the mineral was extracted from the liquid. This method has even survived the mining of the large deposits of potash which were discovered in Germany in the middle of the last century, and which have since been the world's most important source. Before the World War the Strassfurt and Alameda deposits gave the Kaiser control of one of the world's agricultural products.

Beware These Perfumes!Some Have Caused Death

Our craze for perfume is an echo of King Solomon's days, but not all scents are "sweet-smelling savors." Certain trees breathe out poison, and woe betide the traveler who rests beneath their shade, writes an authority in Tit-Bits Magazine.

On the slopes of Chlil is a tree which the natives look upon as being possessed of an evil spirit. Many innocent travelers have crept under its branches during the heat of the day. After resting under one of these trees for a short time, the hands and face of a traveler become swollen, as in a case of snake-bite, and the surface of the skin is covered with boils. British visitors in the vicinity of Valparaiso have succumbed to the influence of this tree.

The trumpet flower, or datura, found in most tropical countries, although not deadly in the open air, is highly dangerous in a room. Fascinated by its coloring and scent, unfamiliar people take it indoors and soon fall into a trance, developing into a deadly stupor, from which they may never awaken. If this trumpet flower were brought into a sick room and left for the night, it would mean certain death for the patient. Recently, in South America, an accusation of murder was brought against a family who were said to have profited financially by the death, in their house, of a wealthy relative. It was found that trumpet flowers had become mixed with others in a vase, which was allowed to stay in the house all night and had caused the death.

Bureau of Fisheries Was Started by U. S. in 1871

The United States bureau of fisheries, the sole federal agency concerned primarily with the conservation and utilization of the nation's aquatic resources, had its origin in a joint resolution passed by congress on February 9, 1871, authorizing the appointment of a commissioner of fish and fisheries. Originally the commission of fish and fisheries was independent and its duties were largely investigatory. They were outlined by the first commissioner, Spencer Fullerton Baird, then assistant secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, in the following words, which refer to the resolution of congress establishing the commission: "The resolution . . . directed that it should be the duty of the commissioner to prosecute the necessary inquiries, with a view to ascertaining whether any, and, if so, what diminution in the number of food fishes of the coast and lakes of the United States had taken place; and to determine what were the causes of the same, and to suggest any measure that might serve to remedy the evil." In 1903 the commission was incorporated into the new Department of Commerce and Labor, becoming known as the bureau of fisheries, and on the organization of the Department of Commerce was included in the new department.

Early Transportation

The conquests of Rome, of Darius, of Alexander the Great, were only made possible by the sailing vessel and the cart and chariot. Many more centuries elapsed and little new in the way of transportation made its appearance. Early in the Seventeenth century an enterprising Englishman noticed that carts drawn over boardwalks ran much smoother and with less effort than the others. Working on this principle he devised a set of parallel wooden rails mounted on ties leading from the mouth of a coal mine to tidewater. Thus the first railroad was born more than 150 years before invention of the first steam locomotive.

The annual meeting of the Maine Water Utilities Association will be held at Maple Inn on Wednesday, Oct. 10. The program includes demonstrations which will be given on Main Street in the forenoon. About 85 members are expected.

The traffic signal at the foot of Church Street, which for the past six or seven years has confronted us with the command to keep to the right or drive with care, has at last fallen a victim to one of the thousands of motorists who keep to the left and drive carelessly. The "winkie" has been removed and the safety of the traveler depends on the observance of the warning signals already guarding the intersection, which ought to be enough.

A Chevrolet truck of Vermont registration was damaged when it left the road on the curve at Herman Mason's about four o'clock Wednesday morning. Evidently speed had no part in the accident, but a dense fog made it impossible to follow the course of the road. The young men with the truck stated that on similar road it had been possible to hold to any curve in the fog by following the "slow" markings and center stripes, neither of which were painted on the road at this point.

CHURCH ACTIVITIESMETHODIST CHURCH

P. J. Clifford, Pastor

9:45 Rally Sunday—Promotion Day. Full attendance expected.

11 a. m. Loyalty Service, Christian and American.

6:00 Rally League Meeting.

7:20 Big service. All officers of Church, Sunday School, and Societies expected. All members invited.

Subject—"Scriptural Ideal for Church Officials."

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

9:30 Church School. Miss Ida Packard, Superintendent.

Morning Service at 11:00 a. m. Speaker, Rev. Walter Byron of Brockton, Mass. Subject, "Vigor in Religion."

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY

Sunday School at 10 o'clock.

Services Sunday morning at 10:45.

"Unreality" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, Oct. 7. Among the citations from the Bible is the following: "Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven" (Prov. 23:5).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, one of which reads: "Man walks in the direction towards which he looks, and where his treasure is, there will his heart be also. If our hopes and affections are spiritual, they come from above, not from beneath, and they bear as of old the fruits of Spirit" (p. 451). Wednesday testimonial meeting at 7:30 p. m.

TYPEWRITER RIBBONS

We have in stock ribbons for Royal, Nolesless, Underwood, Remington, L. C. Smith, Smith Corona and Corona machines, and can get ribbons for any other typewriters

75¢

THE OXFORD COUNTY CITIZEN
Bethel, Maine

ODEON HALL, BETHEL

8:15

Children 20c Adults 35c

Saturday Night, Oct. 6

RONALD COLMAN

"The MASQUERADER"

with Elissa Landi

LOYALTY SUNDAY

IN

THE UNITED STATES

OCTOBER 7

IF YOU ARE A GOOD AMERICAN

ATTEND CHURCH

A Few More

FRUIT JARS

At Early Prices

Cauliflower, Onions, Peas

Spices

Sweet Potatoes, 6 lb.

Onions, 10-lb. bag

Celery,

Lettuce,

Emperor Grapes,

Delicious Apples,

Oranges, doz. 35¢

Squash, Cabbage,

Turnips, C.

L.W. Ramsell

PHONE 114

Special

All Wool

Sweaters

Juniors' $1.25

Boys' $1.50

Ladies' $1.00

ROWE'S

Established 1865

BETHEL, MAINE